1. One of the most important youth organizers is Chairael Saleh, trained by SHIMITSU Hitoshi in 1943-44 in the Seinendan (Japanese fascist youth organization). He became chief of propaganda for the Seinendan and the Barisan Pemuda in 1944-45. In 1945-46 he helped organize the youths of the Indonesian Republic. In July 1946 he was arrested for participating in the attempted coup d'etat and jailed for a short time. He was seen at Kadipaten in Cheribon early in 1948.
2. Angkatan Pemoeda Indonesia (API) was organized by the Communist, D.N. Aidit, in Batavia in October 1945. Aidit served as chariman and had an offensive force of 500 youths armed with pistols, carbines and hand grenades. They fought against the Allied Forces in 1945 in the Menteng area. Aidit is now chairman of the Gerakan Indonesia Raya (Great Indonesian Movement), a subsidiary of the Partai Komunis Indonesia (PKI), with Trisoenoe as secretary at Jogjakarta. The most important contact in Batavia is Samsuedin Sa'at, a member of the political commission of the Indonesian Delegation. He is a subordinate of Ali Boediardjo, also a member of the Indonesian Delegation. As members of the Delegation these two travel between Batavia and Jogjakarta unhindered, carrying messages for the PKI, the API and the GIR. 25X1A
5X1A Comment. [redacted] reported that Ali Boediardjo was one of the councillors of the Pesindo.)
3. Angkatan Komunis Moeda (AKM) Youth Corps, is affiliated with the PKI. This organization is composed of about one thousand youths and has its headquarters in Jogjakarta. The council consists of the following:

Chairman: Ibnoe Parna
Secretary: Mohammed Roesley
Treasurer: J. Jahja

The Angkatan Komunis Moeda has branches at Poerworedjo where Sardjono is commissary and at Solo where Trisoenoe is commissary. 25X1A
It is not known whether this Trisoenoe is the same as the one noted in paragraph 2. In each town there are about five hundred members. The purpose of the organization is to train Indonesian youths ~~for PKI~~ and politically for PKI cadres.

4. The Tentara Rakjat Indonesia Peladjar, Indonesian Students' Army, has its headquarters at Madioen. The commissary of this organization at Batavia is S. Roesiat Mangoenwigata. Commandant of the troop in rural Batavia is Lt. Colonel Soetan Akbar. In the territory of the Indonesian Republic there are still about 2,500 middle school and college students enrolled in this organization, which is nationalistic.
5. The Pandop Rakjat Indonesia, Indonesian Scouts, have five groups in Batavia, which are:
 - a. Djatinegara (Meester Cornelis)
Leaders: Siswantoro of the Taman Siswa School
Soerkirno
Bachtiar Soarip
 - b. Sawahbesar and the downtown area
Leader: Martono
 - c. Tanah-Abang and Pendjaringan
Leaders: Saidal
Boediman
Anwar Roedin
 - d. Senen and Gambir
Leaders: Raden Imam Soekhani
J.K. Hassan
Soemarso
 - e. Tandjong Priok
Leader: Ngadikoen

This nationalized scout movement consists of some 1,500 Indonesian boys and girls in occupied Batavia, who are still subject to the supervision of the Indonesian Republic's Ministry of Education. A branch of this organization has been organized in Bogor by Roesdi, who is acting chairman. Leaders are Soikin and Doemadi.

6. The Polisie Angkatan Moeda, Police Youth Corps, at Jogjakarta was organized by the Japanese late in 1944 in Batavia and at that time was called Polisie Matjan, Police Tiger Corps. In August 1945 it was reorganized and called Polisie Angkatan Moeda, with the members serving as a sort of Gestapo in the rank and file of the urban and rural police in Batavia. In the fall of 1945 they served as Soekarno's body guard in Batavia. Instructors at that time included M. Soetan Koko, deputy chief commissioner of the city police of Batavia during the Japanese occupation, and Raden Sosro Dancokoesoema, first class police commissioner during the same period. These men may still be acting as instructors.

7. Angkatan Moeda Obat dan Tjandoe, Medicine and Opium Service Youth Corps, is a Batavia organization. This organization looted all the available medicine stocks of the Public General Hospital in Batavia in 1942. SO Ping Lien was given practically all of the stocks of the FAPA by Dr. I. van Beuren, who worked for Professor Sato from 1942 to 1944. Professor Sato is SO Ping Lien's uncle. In 1945 SO Ping Lien looted the medicine stocks of the factory at Manggarai, Meester Cornelis. The loot was stored at Oude Tamarindelaan No. 40, where it was seized by the Field Security Branch of the Allied Forces in 1946. SO Ping Lien was jailed but succeeded in bribing his way out with the aid of ANG Tjin Thay.
8. The Angkatan Moeda Post Telephone and Telegraph Youth Corps (AMPTT) in Jogjakarta is composed of men working for the PTT. Practically all of the 2,500 employees are members. On the 1st of August, at a meeting of the assembly of the Working Committee of the Komite Nasional Indonesia Poesat (KNIP), Soendjoto of the Badan Telpo Indonesia and K. Werdojo of the Barisan Boeroeh Indonesia (Indonesian Labor Corps) demanded that the proclamation No. 5 of the Dewan Pertahanan Daerah (State Defense Council), which deals with the postal, telegraph and telephone services, be revised to improve conditions for the PTT men.
9. The Angkatan Moeda Minjak, Oil Youths's Corps, is composed of some 550 youths who guard the oil field and plant of the Bataafsche Petroleum Maatschappij at Tjepoe. They are armed with rifles and pistols.
10. The Barisan Srikandi is a female espionage organization made up of Solo girls. There are about 100 Srikandis operating in occupied areas of Batavia, Bandoeng, Cheribon, Poerwokerto, Semarang, Soerabaya, Palembang, Padang and Medan.
11. The Angkatan Moeda Katholik Repoebliek Indonesia (AMKRI), Catholic Youths' Corps of the Indonesian Republic, is a Jogjakarta organization with a membership of about 500. The officers of the organization are:

Chairman M.J. Soenardi
 Deputy Chairman B.B. Kwari

The Indonesian Catholic daily Hidup (Life), published by the Unitas publishing company in Jogjakarta, is the organ of the AMKRI. The managing directors are J. Onghshenguan and A.S. Djojosoepadmo. The editor is A. Soeprijo Djojosoepadmo and the assistant editor is R. Soekadjio. The AMKRI is affiliated with the Badan Kongres Pemoeda Indonesia, Indonesian Youths' Congress Organization, which is a central organization of youth movements in the Indonesian Republic.
12. The Wanita Nasional Indonesia (WANI), Indonesian Women Nationalists, is composed of about 500 young girls, who are daughters of officers and officials of the Indonesian Republic at Batavia. Miss Radio A.F.E. Djajadiningrat is chairman.
13. Alim Soetan Maha Besar is chairman of the Badan Pembantoe Peladjar Indonesia, Indonesian Students' Scholarship Body, in Batavia. Besar is from Minangkabau.
14. The Kebaktihan Rakjat Indonesia Soelawesi (KRIS) has a membership of about 150 youths who are under the command of A.E. Geroengan and are engaged in subversive activities against the Dutch. 25X1A
